

The Times, Vol 12

, Saturday 22 July 2006 - 18:14:47

The Steinkreis Times, Volume 12

STEINKREIS NEWS, VOLUME TWELVE HEADLINES- brought to you by your local News Gnome Restricted Access News has just reached the city of disruptions to the normal trade routes to the south of the Trade and Tackle. Traders have been heard complaining that they can no longer safely visit Hammersong, Greenvale or Davenshire. The bridge at Hammersong has finally collapsed. Reports have been heard of the giants throwing stones continuously at the bridge until it fell. Those that are able are providing escorts to merchants to ensure the continued supply of provisions to the towns aforementioned and to the Cobblewall Inn. So far there has been no word as to when the bridge could be rebuilt and access restored. We must work together and remain calm through these difficult times. Do not panic! Be vigilant and report unusual occurrences to the guards immediately. The Steinkreis Opera House Breaks Ground Earlier this month, Lord K